Third Sunday after Trinity

Opening Hymn: Here I Am To Worship

Collect:

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world
in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen.

First Reading - 1 Peter 4:8-11

Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever.

Amen.

Gradual Hymn: I Will Offer Up My Life

Second Reading - Luke 10:25-37

An expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind and your neighbour as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

But wanting to vindicate himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?" Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and took off, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came upon him, and when he saw him he was moved with compassion. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, treating them with oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him, and when I come back I will repay you whatever more you spend.' Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Communion Hymn: All Who Are Thirsty

Post Communion:

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining
and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it,
and shield us from knowing more than we can bear
until we may look upon you without fear;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Amen.

Final Hymn: Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

Confirmation at St Margaret's

"Confirm, O Lord, your servant with your Holy Spirit."

Have you ever wondered what it means to truly own your faith?

Confirmation is an opportunity to explore the Christian journey more deeply, to ask honest questions, to reflect on what you believe, and to discover what it means to follow Jesus in today's world. Whether you've grown up in the church or are simply curious, this is a space where you can belong, learn, and grow alongside others. Together, we'll explore the foundations of the Christian faith in an open and welcoming environment. No question is too big, no doubt too small. This is about journeying together as we share with others who are seeking too.

If you feel drawn to take this step, or would simply like to find out more, you are warmly invited to get in touch.

Contact: Revd. Chris Clayton. Come and see where the journey might lead.
